

Hope Renews

Hope Atlanta's Future Is Built On Collaboration And Courage

As Georgia's longest-standing nonprofit organization committed to assisting people experiencing homelessness, we've seen our community through trying times since 1900. Homelessness in Atlanta, as in many cities across the US, continues to rise amid skyrocketing housing costs, wage stagnation, and limited affordable housing. The pivotal role Hope Atlanta plays in Atlanta with its unique and multi-faceted approach to homelessness prevention, street outreach, rapid rehousing, and long-term stability solutions set it apart as a critical player in Atlanta's continuum of care.

Atlanta's challenges are steep: family and single adult homelessness have risen 14%, and 80% of these people are African American, revealing entrenched inequities. Yet progress proves what's possible—veteran homelessness is down 6%, youth down 3%, chronic homelessness down 9%.

We are at a critical inflection point — on the cusp of decreasing homelessness in Atlanta.

Downtown Rising Partners

Through initiatives like Downtown Rising and the Atlanta Rising Campaign, we are working with Partners for HOME, the City of Atlanta, and Fulton County to create 500 new supportive housing units, 1,800 rapid rehousing placements, and to end unsheltered homelessness downtown by 2025.

The Real Power Lies In People Like You

Never underestimate the power of a small act. Every smile you share, every hour you give, every dollar you donate—it all matters. Change doesn't happen in one sweeping motion; it happens through countless moments of compassion and courage that, together, shift the story of our city.

Join the growing movement to end Atlanta homelessness.

The future of Atlanta isn't shaped by one policy or organization—it's built by neighbors who refuse to let others fall through the cracks. When you take even one step—giving, volunteering, advocating—you add to a movement that's been growing for 125 years. And when thousands of those small steps come together, they create a city where dignity, joy, and home are possible.

A Holistic Approach to Homelessness

Hope Atlanta serves as the bridge to self-sufficiency, working hand-in-hand with our clients on their journeys.
